Addendum to Theft Policy: Unauthorized Removal of Damaged or Defective Customer Property

I acknowledge that I have received, read, and understand the Kann Enterprises, Inc. Addendum to the Theft Policy regarding the prohibition of removing, retaining, or taking possession of any customer product, material, or equipment—including damaged, defective, or discarded items—from customer property.

I understand that violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment, and may also lead to legal consequences if required by the customer or applicable law.
